

Reduce the Number of MLAs in the Legislature

WHEREAS Saskatchewan has the largest number of MLAs relative to population in Western Canada;

WHEREAS effective political representation can be maintained while improving efficiency and reducing costs to taxpayers;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that a Saskatchewan Liberal government will reduce the number of Members in the Legislative Assembly of Saskatchewan from 61 to 49, based on an average constituency size of 24,000 constituents.